Brain Massage®: Show No. 992

WELCOME, KSMA, TO THE BRAIN MASSAGE® SHOW / WILL OUR LIBERTIES SURVIVE? HOPE!!!

Original Air Date: 07.06.24

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

Hello, KSMA—welcome to the Brain Massage® show. Many who find me here on KSMA—1240 AM and 99.5 FM—have heard the Brain Massage® show before, but I expect we will find some new listeners, so let's use this first broadcast of the Brain Massage® show on KSMA for introductions.

We just celebrated July 4th, 248 years since the Declaration. —50 years later, both Thomas Jefferson and John Adams died on July 4th. Will our liberty survive the present effort to destroy it?

Blinken's arrogant and presumptuous rebuke against Israel¹ offers insight into the priorities of Biden's administration: showing deference to all our enemies, exposing Americans to criminal immigrants, and putting American's and America's interests LAST!

And, if we have time, I'll offer an update on the most critical concern to our Republic today — the integrity of our Elections!

Okay, my friends, it's time for your brain massage.®

listeners, so I'll use this first broadcast of the Brain Massage® show on KSMA for introductions.

I'm Dr. Scheidbach—I'm not a medical doctor, I am a Doctor of Theological Studies — my degree is designated DTS. So let's start there.

I know that most people hear “doctor” and think medical doctor. Some whom I admire greatly, such as Dan Bongino, resent people using the title Doctor who are not medical doctors. He has said this in connection with his expressed disdain for Jill Biden — who styles herself a “doctor.”

I have zero respect for that enabler-n-chief First Lady Biden and have only contempt for her part in the Biden Crime family enterprise led by “the big guy,” her husband, his brother, and their son, Hunter. However, she earned her “doctorate” in education from

So, what am I going to do about this “doctor” business without sounding like I'm justifying Jill? Well, I just did it! Should I not use the title because it is exclusively used to identify medical doctors?

I've got some surprises for you! And that's a signature feature of the Brain Massage® show — surprising insights.

Did you know medical professionals were not the original “doctors”? Did you know the word doctor has nothing to do with medicine or with the application of medicine, whether physical, mental, or emotional treatment? Check these links.²

² 993.0.4-The History of 'Doctor' | Merriam-Webster <https://www.merriam-webster.com/wordplay/the-history-of-doctor> 993.0.3-etymology - Why are medical professionals called Doctors? - English Language & Usage Stack Exchange <https://english.stackexchange.com/questions/616928/why-are-medical-professionals-called-doctors> While this next one was almost certainly not written by a “Doctor” of English—it does lay out the facts about this issue: 993.0.2-When Did Physicians Start To Be Called Doctors? <https://www.grunge.com/300274/when-did-physicians-start-to-be-called-doctors/>

The word comes from Latin, docere, which means to teach. The first use of the term was for theologians. Yep! It was used to identify those who had labored in “the word and doctrine” sufficiently to be recognized as experts in the Scripture, masters of the doctrines of GOD, or the “words (logos) of GOD (Theos) — or Theologians.

There was a time when theologians were more broadly educated than they are today. Theologians were among the first recognized “scientists,” “philosophers,” and “historians.” Theology was regarded as the queen of the sciences!³ This status persisted through the 1700s.

Without getting into the squabble over whether the Roman Catholic system, which coopted and corrupted Christianity, was the “originator” of the use of this term in this way — the fact is, the BIBLE declares THEOLOGY — the words of GOD — to be the ultimate source of TRUTH, something declared by JESUS when He said, “THY WORD IS TRUTH” (John 17:17) and then through PAUL, who warned us against “science falsely so called” (1 Timothy 6:20), thus affirming a science rightly so called (see Daniel 1:4) — and revealed that Jesus set His “church” in the earth to be the “PILLAR AND GROUND OF THE TRUTH” (1 Timothy 3:15), the only “institution” outside the family Divinely commissioned to “TEACH.” Now, both Jesus and Paul, all would agree, were very well-informed “doctors” (teachers of truth) in their own right.

Besides, our Protestant translators in 1611 recognized the Greek word nomodidaskalos to mean Doctor of the Law (Luke 5:17; and Acts 5:34), literally, an officially recognized Teacher of the Holy Scripture.

The first doctors were theologians.

³ 993.0.5-How is theology “the queen of the sciences”? | GotQuestions <https://www.gotquestions.org/theology-queen-sciences.html>

I've seen what “doctors” of medicine become when divorced from the “doctors of GOD’S LAW” — Fauci comes to mind — and I will not put my “doctorate” of theology under the foot of any man. Hehe!

See all the work I have to do sometimes to state a simple truth? Now, may I introduce myself? Hello, I'm Dr. Scheidbach!

Next, I'm “pastor” of Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA.

The word pastor translates a word that means shepherd. Jesus is the “Chief Shepherd” (1 Peter 5:4). I am an undershepherd. When Jesus arose, He “gave gifts to men” (Ephesians 4:8,11). Among these are the “pastors and teachers.” They are given “for the edifying of the body of Christ,” — which is His Church (Colossians 1:18). The pastor-teacher is one gift, for the shepherd is a feeder and a guide.

My office is bishop! Biblically, a bishop presides over one local church. It means to rule! The rule for spiritual rulers is the same for all rulers—we are not to act as LORDS over God's heritage, “but [as] ensamples to the flock” (ensamples means exactly what you think it means when you read it in 1 Peter 5:3—an example!) We call the bishop the senior pastor.

I am the senior pastor of the LIGHTHOUSE Baptist Church.

Baptists never identified with the Catholic church — Catholics became generally known by that name about AD 430 and continued under that name through the Middle Ages to the Protestant Reformation.

The Baptists objected to infant baptism when it was first introduced among some of the early churches soon after the last of the Apostles died. The churches that rejected infant baptism required anyone coming into their communion from an infant-baptizing church to be baptized. They were called ana-baptists, which means re-baptizers. Later, this was shortened to Baptist.

Infant baptism is one of many accommodations early Christians made to paganism. When the Roman Emperor Constantine, in AD 313, adopted this version of “Christianity” as the religion of Rome, it finally resulted in the formation of the Roman Catholic Church. The Roman church persecuted those who rejected their authority to baptize and most especially hated the Baptists.

The Reformation broke the oppressive power of the Roman Catholic Church. Baptists continued suffering persecution by the Protestants until in America they won their freedom by the TRUTH and the moving of CHRIST’s Spirit through them in their reproofs upon the world for the false doctrine of the divine right of kings, challenged the “authority” of the religious and civil magistrates to have dominion over our faith, and conscience — and so TRUTH and LIBERTY prevailed, shaping the conscience of our founders by the WORD of GOD that prevailed in declaring TRUTH, and the SPIRIT of CHRIST through that TRUTH moving mightily among them, they founded this land of LIBERTY UNDER GOD.

So, I’m Dr. Scheidbach, PASTOR, of Lighthouse BAPTIST church.

As for the word church. Warning, warning (arrooghah) blazing missiles of insight incoming, but don’t duck — these missiles will explode insight into your MIND breaking you free from the tangled knots the enemy uses to keep you behind blinders — hehe.

But really!

Jesus chose a very interesting word to identify His congregation: His assembly. The common word for a religious assembly that Jesus would attend in His day was synagogue. It’s a Greek word with a simple meaning—assembly! It identified what the Jews called the Beit-Torah. Beit means House, and Torah refers to the Old Testament Scriptures. The synagogue was a “Torah-School.” Or Bible School. It’s where the Jews congregated to worship, pray, learn the Bible, grow in their faith, identify publicly with their fellow believers, and form connections with fellow congregants.

Why didn't Jesus use this word to identify His assembly? If we say because He intended to differentiate His assembly from the Old Testament assembly, He could have easily simply called it "MY SYNAGOGUE."

Instead, Jesus called it "MY CHURCH." The word church literally means LORD'S HOUSE, but it translates a Greek word, Ekklesia. The word Ekklesia is a compound word that was coined by the Greeks to identify a political assembly of citizens appointed to the Ekklesia to conduct the political business of the City State for a term of one year. At the end of their term in the Ekklesia, it was disbanded, and every member of the Ekklesias from every City State gathered to what was called the panagyros — or the general assembly. The Ekklesias would then reconvene for another year, often with new members.

The word EKKLESIA is often interpreted to mean called out ones. That's because if you break it down, it is a compound of two words, one meaning "out" and the other meaning "called." But that is not what the Greeks would think of when hearing this word. The disciples, who lived in the Hellenistic culture of that day, would have known exactly what this word identified.

It identified the political assembly of the Greek City state—Jesus differentiated the Greek Ekklesia from His when He said, I will build "MY CHURCH," MY EKKLESIA.

Jesus is the KING of the KINGDOM described in the kingdom parables (Matthew 13, for example). None of these parables of the kingdom talk about what GOD is doing IN HEAVEN, or about what He will be doing later when Jesus comes to sit on David's throne and set up His earthly kingdom.

When Jesus comes back with THAT KINGDOM, He will destroy all the kingdoms in the world today—all of them! The stone, representing His coming kingdom, will dash them all to dust, and the wind will blow them away — and then that stone will grow into a world wide kingdom encompassing the entire world.

None of the “parables of the kingdom” describe the coming kingdom. They all describe what Jesus is DOING right now in the world as KING over all the kingdoms of the world.

Finally, I am a born again Christian — having confessed that JESUS is LORD of Heaven and Earth, and, believing He died for my sins and not His own, and arose from the dead, according to the Scriptures, I have called on His name, and He saved me and translated me into the kingdom of GOD’s dear SON. I am “in His kingdom” right now! His kingdom is exalted above all the kingdoms of this world! As a king and priest unto GOD and ambassador for Jesus Christ, along with all who likewise have repented and believed on the Name of Jesus Christ, extend the SPIRIT’s REPROOF on this world that lieth in wickedness for their sin, to declare His righteousness, and warn of His coming judgment.

Enough on that for now! The point is, I pastor a Baptist CHURCH — Ekklesia, which, along with every church that has a candlestick before the LORD, holds the keys of the kingdom — the authority of CHRIST the KING — and I serve as a bishop over one of His EKKLESIAS, which extends His AUTHORITY over the rulers of this earth teaching them to observe all things HE HAS COMMANDED. Commanding all men everywhere to REPENT and BELIEVE on Jesus Christ, confessing HE IS LORD, RISEN FROM THE DEAD, and ready to save all who submit to His terms of surrender—!

What I offer is a biblical perspective on news and current events, providing a guiding light to help families navigate through the darksome days in which we live—keeping their eye on the LIGHT OF TRUTH as a beacon to find their way through to the TRUTH!

I'm called the Brain masseur! And I'll explain that on the other side of this short break!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

For some years, back in the mid-eighties, I served as a professor of theological subjects at my alma mater — now called Heartland Baptist College in Oklahoma. One day, as I approached my class, I overheard a group of my students talking, and one said, "Here comes pastor Scheidbach; it's time for our brain massage." I asked the students about this, and we had an energetic conversation about my lectures being like having their brains massaged; one said it was more like a brain bludgeoning. I liked the metaphor and began using it—not brain-bludgeoning, the other one.

Later, when I began radio in the late nineties, I used this from time to time—it's time for your brain massage! It caught on, so that's how the show came to be called the Brain Massage®.

Here is how I explain the "science of the brain massage."

[INTERJECT THE SCIENCE OF THE BRAIN MASSAGE. 70 seconds]

Hi! I'm Jerry, your brain masseur.

We just celebrated July 4th, 248 years since the Declaration was formally adopted by the Second Continental Congress in 1776. — 45 years after it was approved, Jefferson said the flames kindled on the 4th of July, 1776 have spread over too much of the globe to be extinguished by the feeble engines of despotism.”⁴ — 4 years and 3 months later, both Jefferson and Adams would die on July 4th, on the fiftieth anniversary of our Declaration of Independence. Was Jefferson’s prediction true? Will it hold today?

In the midst of a global assault on the principle of divinely endowed inalienable rights, people of faith are finding their voice and beginning to rise! Here are a few examples!

Louisiana Governor, Christian Jeff Landry, has signed legislation requiring public school classrooms to display the Ten Commandments.⁵ Earlier, the governor signed Legislation mandating the motto “In God We Trust” be displayed in classrooms. Louisiana also passed legislation requiring public funding for private education and to allow schools to hire chaplains.⁶

On the heels of Louisiana's assertion of Kingdom authority over government, the Superintendent of public schools in Oklahoma has mandated that the Ten Commandments be displayed in every public school classroom and that students be taught the relationship between the Bible and the founding of our country.⁷

Texas Governor Abbott is waiting for the Texas Legislature to send him a Bill to require the Ten Commandments to be displayed in all

Texas public schools—Lieutenant Gov. Dan Patrick, Republican, Texas, chastised (Holy Ghost reproved) Republican state House Speaker Dade Phelan for blocking the bill.⁸ He called the Ten Commandments “a fundamental foundation of American and Texas law.” [IBID]

Bringing the Ten Commandments and the BIBLE back to our schools is a good idea! Let each State decide for itself whether it wants to go on with the hypocrisy of the left — denying representation of Christianity in our school curriculums and classrooms while pushing their immoral Queer agenda on our children despite parents’ objections.

The hypocrisy of saying we can’t mention GOD, while introducing our children to Islam; the hypocrisy of saying in the name of separation of Church and State we can’t promote chastity, sexual responsibility in a Christian context, but you can teach them pansexuality, homosexuality, and even pedophilia in the name of secularism.

The hypocrisy goes way back. You said you can’t teach CREATION as the exclusive model for origins — but you must allow evolution to be taught. And from there, you have removed all mention of CREATION and replaced it with your false doctrine of EVOLUTION — which has been totally debunked by REAL SCIENCE.

Hawking’s Mulvaney — model of rhetoric. Mulvaney is a tranny who denies his maleness to pretend he is a girl. Hawkings denies the obvious amazing ORDER we see throughout creation and says it’s the ILLUSION OF ORDER.

The ILLUSION has been and continues to be that we ever allowed ourselves to be duped into this blatant DENIAL OF WHAT IS EVERYWHERE EVIDENT. Men are men, women are women, and no way you get ORDER out of CHAOS, it's always the other way round!

You don't get something from noting any more than you ever get something for nothing —

It's time the people of FAITH rose up and put a stop to all this nonsense.

Like what happened in Coeur d'Alene Idaho — the city magistrate decreed no crosses could be used in the July 4th Parade. The good Christians of Idaho said, right! And hundreds of Crosses were carried in the Parade.

It reminds me of what happened here in California. Newsome ordered the churches shut down for COVID — LBC said Jesus is the only one with that authority and we stayed open.

It reminds me of what happened in CA when Newsome attempted to shut down July 4th. No fireworks, he said. As GOD is my witness, I never saw such a display of open defiance to a dictator—in our own community, the fireworks went on and our citizens doubled down on this — it was amazing. Later I learned this was not limited to our community, but all of California was ablaze on July 4th that year — I saw a satellite image of California for that July 4th and the entire State was lit up!

Friends, on September 12, 1831, only about 4 years before both Jefferson and Adams died, on July 4th, by the way, Jefferson wrote to Adams and said, “Even should the cloud of barbarism and despotism again obscure the science and liberties of Europe, this country remains to preserve and restore light and liberty to them. In short, the flames kindled on the 4th of July 1776 have spread over too much of the globe to be extinguished by the feeble engines of despotism. On the contrary, they will consume these engines, and all who work them”⁹

I believe the “flame of Liberty” though wavering and dim, is still burning deep in the hearts of true Americans! God has by Trump fanned that flame, and the more the wicked LEFT does to extinguish the light of LIBERTY, the more resistance stiffens against these usurpers of our RIGHTS!

Let us rise! Assume our place and bring down the strongholds of tyranny the left has constructed to take down our Constitutional protections against Tyrants.

Remember the Epitaph of Bradshaw published by Franklin in his Pennsylvania News in December 1775? REBELLION TO TYRANTS is OBEDIENCE to GOD. Jefferson picked it up, loved it, and, together with Franklin and Adams, attempted to get it adopted as our national motto. Bradshaw was the British jurist who presided over the deposing of tyrant King Charles the 1st by detaching his head!

Jefferson said the roots of the tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time by the blood of patriots and tyrants.

Let’s hope we can restore the integrity of the Ballot box and cast these wicked rulers off our backs this coming November.

I’ve got to wrap it up! I’ll address the rest in my Brain Massage® LIVE broadcast Saturday night at about 8 PM. Go to brainmassage.net to sign up for a free link to download the Brain Massager show when it’s posted on Friday night, and let me know if you want to be notified when I go live with Brain Massage® LIVE video podcast.
